Please read this document carefully and completely.

Not only will this document answer your questions, but it is also a legal and binding agreement between you and University Housing.

University Housing is provided for students who plan to reside in the East Campus Graduate Village for the academic year. The East Campus Graduate Village does not offer month-to-month, term, or temporary housing for students. This Contract is based on the established educational goals of the university, consideration for other residents, health and safety standards, compliance with established laws, and the university’s Student Conduct Code. Adapted facilities are available to accommodate residents with disabilities.

The University of Oregon actively promotes cultural diversity and equal opportunity. We honor the humanity that joins us and we celebrate the differences that distinguish us. University Housing has an expectation that all residents will actively participate in creating welcoming communities that value all members without regard to race, color, sex, disability, national origin, age, religion, marital status, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression. Our highly trained staff members are awaiting your call to discuss any concerns you may have.

Definitions

For the purpose of this Contract, the following definitions shall apply:

Contract Year
July 1, 2014 through June 30, 2015

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF OCCUPANCY

1. Eligibility Requirements:
a. Student Status: The Resident must be a full-time registered Law or Graduate student at the University of Oregon during the term/semester the Resident checks in and remain a full-time registered Graduate student for at least fall, winter, and spring term or full-time registered Law student both semesters each year. The Academic Year commences with fall term/fall semester and concludes at the end of summer term/spring semester. Graduate and law students must enroll for a minimum of nine credit hours each term or semester.
b. Changes in Student Status: The Resident will be required, in University Housing’s sole discretion, to either Vacate or apply to move to another Family Housing and University Apartments Unit if the Resident no longer meets the occupancy guidelines as stated below for the Unit occupied. Any change in eligibility that may render a Resident ineligible to reside in the Unit must be reported to University Housing within ten business days of the change.
c. Household Composition: The Resident must be a graduate or law student. Only the Resident listed on the Contract may reside in the Unit.
d. Occupancy Guidelines: No more than one person may reside in a Unit. Unit assignments are based on the following criteria:

<tr>
<th>Unit Category</th>
<th>Maximum Occupancy</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Studio</td>
<td>1 Person</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>One Bedroom</td>
<td>1 Person</td>
</tr>

2. Contract Validity: This Contract is not valid unless it has been offered through the University Housing application process. Contracts are nontransferable. Assignments are based upon date of application. This Contract is not assignable without the written consent of University Housing.

3. Unit Changes: Any change in Unit must be approved in advance by University Housing. Upon University Housing’s approval, Residents are permitted one Unit change throughout the period of their residency in University Housing. There is a $100 fee for each Unit change. Additional requests for Unit changes must be petitioned. Unit changes must be accomplished in four calendar days or the Resident will be subject to a $15 per day holdover fee. The Resident’s University Housing account must be current and in good standing prior to the Unit change. Current Unit subject to inspection prior to a Unit change being offered. If current violations are noted during inspection, the Unit change request will be canceled. This may also result in damage and cleaning charges as well as other consequences as stated in the Contract.

4. Utilities: The Resident shall contract directly with the providers of all utility services. All such contracts shall be effective at the time the Resident first occupies the Unit. Failure to set-up utilities in the Resident’s name is subject to a $35 per month utility charge-back fee. The Resident shall be responsible for paying electricity charges incurred by the Resident and shall hold University Housing harmless with respect to all such charges. Utilities must not be shut off to the unit, even if the tenant is away from the unit for an extended period of time.

5. Rent Due Date and Rental Rates:
a. One month’s rent, or its prorated remainder, is payable in advance at the time an offer of housing is accepted. Thereafter, monthly rent shall be due and payable on the first day of each month. Prorated rent is non-refundable in the event of cancellation by student.
b. Monthly rental payments are assessed on the student account and billed on or about the 12th of each month prior to the due date. The university will withhold and apply any financial aid as well as all scholarships, grants, fee remissions and other loans awarded to a Resident, regardless of when they are awarded, to be disbursed, or received, to rent and other charges incurred or assessed or reasonably expected to be incurred or assessed during the Contract Year late fees may be assessed even if rental payments are past due because financial aid has not been received by the Resident.
c. All financial transactions are handled by, and charges are payable at or through, the university’s office of Business Affairs. Any amount unpaid ten days after the due date shall be collected in accordance with University of Oregon’s revolving charge account program (OAR 571-1060-0040) and subject to the university’s revolving charge account agreement whether or not one is executed and thus subject to a 9% interest rate per annum beginning on the eleventh day and a $6 per month overdue billing charge. The university’s revolving charge account program is posted in the schedule of classes. Non-payment of charges may lead to removal from the East Campus Graduate Village and may subject the Resident to legal fees and other costs and charges for collection of the indebtedness.
d. Rent for East Campus Graduate Village is specific to each Unit. Rental rates are posted at: housing.uoregon.edu/apartments. Increases may be implemented after all appropriate reviews as mandated by the University of Oregon.

6. Cancellation of Contract: Residents agree to complete the entire Contract Year (or the remainder of the Contract Year should check-in take place after July 1). After check-in, Residents may only be released from the contract for one of the reasons below:
a. Resident is admitted but fails to register for classes during the term of move-in, or Resident cancels registration.
b. Leaving the university: Withdrawal from the university, participating in a university approved educational leave program (i.e. study abroad), dismissal from the university for academic reasons (dismissal for inappropirate conduct is specifically excluded), or being denied admission to the university.
c. Buying Out the Contract: Paying $9 per day from the checkout date through June 30, 2015. The full amount will be charged to the Resident’s university account at the time of checkout.
d. Vacating: Please submit written notice at least thirty days prior to vacating. Upon receipt of Resident’s Vacate notice, Resident will be sent check-out instructions.
e. Contractual Noncompliance: The university may terminate this contract for any of the above reasons upon giving the student three (3) days written notice. The notice shall state the reason for termination and the date of termination, which must be at least three (3) days after serving notice. After the date of termination, the university shall be entitled, without further notice, to enter the assigned unit and repossess the same, and to remove student and student’s property without any liability for trespassing or otherwise. The three day (3) day notice requirement does not apply when the university is initiating commitment under ORS 426.070 because student is at imminent risk of substantial danger due to a mental illness and in need of treatment.

7. Contract Renewal: Subject to the approval of the Landlord, a Resident may enter into a new contract upon the expiration of this one. A Resident who wishes to enter into a new contract must notify the Landlord prior to June 1 and execute the new contract on or before July 1 each year.

8. Removal: If a Resident is removed from East Campus Graduate Village or this Contract is canceled for nonpayment of rent charges, under-enrollment, or student conduct, the “Cancellation of Contract” provision will apply. Subsequent academic registration may be blocked for failure to pay rent charges.

9. Abandoned Property: If University Housing reasonably believes the Resident has abandoned personal property, University Housing may dispose of the property in accordance with the applicable Oregon Administrative Rule. The method and labor to dispose of abandoned property will be charged to the tenant.

10. Absence in Excess of Seven Days: The Resident is required to notify University Housing in writing of any anticipated absence in excess of seven days. During such absence, University Housing may enter the dwelling when reasonably necessary. See section 13, “Resident Responsibilities.”

11. Privacy and Reasonable Access: Except in the case of emergency, or as otherwise provided by this Contract or by law, University Housing must give at least 24-hours notice before entering the Unit, and then may enter only at reasonable times and in a reasonable manner. University Housing will not abuse the right of access, nor use it to harass. The Resident will not unreasonably withhold consent to access by University Housing.

12. Non-liability of the University: The Resident is responsible for personal property belonging to the Resident or Guests. University Housing shall not be liable for loss of or damage to personal property belonging to Residents or Guests regardless of where the personal property is located, whether in the Unit, Common Areas, laundries, or storage rooms, unless loss or damage is caused by negligence of University Housing.

It is the responsibility of Residents to keep Units locked at all times. Residents are strongly encouraged to carry a private insurance policy (such as renters insurance) to cover their property against loss.

13. Motor Vehicles and Parking:
a. Parking is restricted to permit parking only. Parking permits are purchased, and regulations are enforced, through the University of Oregon Department of Parking and Transportation. All parking is head-in parking. Authorized vehicles must display the parking permit as required by the University of Oregon Police Department. Parking is restricted to designated parking spaces only and shall not obstruct sidewalks, entryways, driveways, fire lanes, or bicycle parking areas.
b. Motor homes, trailers, boats, etc. are not allowed. Additional parking information is available through the University of Oregon Department of Parking and Transportation.

14. Resident Responsibilities: The Resident on their own behalf and on behalf of all Guests agrees to:
   a. Keep all areas under the Resident's control and all plumbing fixtures and appliances the Resident uses clean, and to dispose of all waste in a sanitary and safe manner;
   b. Use the Unit, Common Areas, facilities and all appliances in a reasonable manner considering the purposes for which they were designed and intended;
   c. Not deliberately or negligently destroy, damage, or remove any part of the Unit or its appliances, fixtures, or furnishings, or permit others to do so;
   d. Report any need for repairs immediately to the Spencer View Area Office;
   e. Protect the Unit from pests and vermin;
   f. Not store explosive, volatile, or hazardous substances, or create hazardous conditions in or about the Unit or in Common Areas or facilities;
   g. Maintain full-time student status at the University of Oregon during the term the Resident checks in and for at least three of the four academic terms each year or each semester in the case of a law student; and
   h. Assume liability and responsibility for damages resulting from acts or omissions of the Resident or the Resident's Guests and losses incurred by the Resident or the Resident's Guests, unless such losses are the result of the negligence of University Housing.
   i. Deter mold growth in the living spaces by maintaining room temperature and keeping furniture away from the walls.

15. University Housing Responsibilities: University Housing agrees to make all repairs and to do whatever is necessary to keep the premises in a fit and habitable condition in compliance with applicable state, county, and municipal laws and regulations. University Housing will provide:
   a. Physical facilities, including appliances, in good repair;
   b. Effective water and weather protection;
   c. Plumbing that conforms to applicable code and is maintained in good working order;
   d. Adequate heating;
   e. An electrical system that conforms to applicable code and is maintained in good working order;
   f. Adequate receptacles for the removal of garbage;
   g. An approved and adequate water supply system capable of supplying hot and cold water;
   h. Working locks for all outside doors and keys for Resident.

16. Interruptions of Service and Construction: University Housing is not responsible for the continuation of mail, heating, maintenance, or security service at normal levels in the event of a natural disaster, strike, or lockout of public employees or suppliers' employees, power, water, or sewer interruptions from on- or off-campus sources, or in the event of other causal events beyond the control or reasonable anticipation of University Housing. University Housing is not responsible for construction noise or disruptions associated with the construction sites.

17. Peaceful Enjoyment: The Resident and Guests will conduct themselves, and will require others in or about the Unit, the Common Areas, or the premises to conduct themselves, in a reasonable manner that will not disturb Residents' or others' peaceful enjoyment. University Housing is not responsible for any annoyance or disruption to Residents resulting from noise created by external sources (i.e. private businesses, public services, and university or community events).

18. Facilities and Appliances: University Housing will provide as part of the rental price, services and appliances as noted on the check-in/checkout record. The Resident agrees to use the facilities and appliances supplied by University Housing in a reasonable manner and for their intended use, and University Housing agrees to maintain the facilities and appliances in operating condition. Posting of unapproved signs or erecting antennas, satellite dishes, or any other objects on the exterior of any buildings is prohibited.

19. Cleaning and Damage Charges and Hazardous Substances or Condition Abatement: Actual charges for cleaning and repair of damages to the Unit, Common Areas, or appliances beyond normal wear and tear, and abatement of explosive, volatile, or hazardous substances or condition owned or controlled by the Resident will be paid by the Resident.

20. Unit, Property, and Grounds Alterations: Unauthorized alterations, modifications, or additions to the interior or exterior of the Unit, property, or grounds are prohibited. Affecting the surface of ceilings, floors, molding, and/or walls by drilling, grinding, sanding, sawing, nailing, and/or any activity that affects the surface is prohibited.

21. Grounds: University Housing will maintain common lawn areas, trees, and shrubbery using modern methods with motorized equipment, herbicides, and fertilizers.

22. Interior and Exterior Paint: Painting the interior or exterior of the Unit is prohibited.

23. Keys and Locks: Apartment, outside door, and mailbox keys will be issued only to the Resident listed on the Contract. A $40 charge will be assessed for apartment and outside door lock changes and new keys if the originally issued keys are lost or not returned at checkout. A $25 charge will be assessed to the Resident for replacing mailbox locks. The installation and use of unauthorized locks on interior and exterior doors by Resident is prohibited.

24. Pets: Fish are permitted. All other pets and animals are prohibited. Violation of this policy will result in a ten-day notice to Vacate, a $50 fumigation fee, and additional charges for all damages resulting from the pet or animal.

25. Guests: Overnight Guests are permitted and no notification to University Housing is required unless Guests are to remain for more than one week. Guests who remain for more than one week are subject to the approval of the Petition Review Board.

26. Security:
   a. Security is a shared responsibility between Residents and university staff members. Residents are encouraged to take all reasonable steps to ensure their personal safety and security. Students who jeopardize the safety or security of other Residents by propping open or disabling exterior doors, or letting unauthorized individuals into the building (intentionally or carelessly) will face disciplinary action.
      • Propping open building entrance doors and fire doors is prohibited. Residents are responsible for not propping doors open and for keeping their unit doors locked and carrying keys at all times.
      • Residents are prohibited from allowing anyone who is not their Guest into any building and are responsible for reporting suspicious activities to the Department of Public Safety (DPS) or housing staff, and for locking Unit doors.
   b. Upon request, University Housing will furnish a Resident's telephone number. Residents may request privacy restrictions to be placed on their student information by contacting the Office of the Registrar at 541-346-3243.

27. Fire, Safety, Sanitation, and Moisture:
   a. Inspection: A fire, safety, and sanitation inspection of each Unit will be conducted annually. A separate moisture inspection will be conducted of each unit annually.
   b. Notification of Fire: In the event of any fire on the premises, the Resident should leave the building and call 9-1-1. The Resident should also notify the Department of Public Safety at 541-346-6666 and the Spencer View Area Office at 541-346-5263.
   c. Fire Extinguishers: Fire extinguishers must be used for fires only and must not be removed from hanger except to extinguish fires. Expended extinguishers must be reported to the Spencer View Area Office for immediate replacement.
   d. Smoke Detectors: Tampering with smoke detectors is prohibited and will subject the Resident to a fine up to $150. Tampering includes, but is not limited to, covering, removing, disconnecting, or otherwise disabling the unit. This includes removing the battery and not immediately replacing it. If you believe the smoke detector battery needs to be changed or is otherwise not working correctly, contact the Spencer View Office.
   e. Plugs and Adapters: Extension cords, other unapproved electrical cords, and multi-plug adapters are prohibited.
   f. Candles and Incense: The burning of candles and incense is prohibited in the Unit.
   g. Combustibles: Use and storage of briquettes, butane, gasoline or gas burning stoves or barbecues within the Unit is prohibited. Combustibles must not be placed within six inches of wall heaters or stove ranges.
   h. Space Heaters: Portable space heaters are allowed but must be UL approved, have a safety tip-over switch, enclosed heating elements, and be plugged directly into an outlet (no extension cord).
   i. Halogen Lights: The use of halogen lights and light bulbs is prohibited.
28. Dangerous Devices:
   a. Possession, use, or threatened use of firearms (including but not limited to BB guns, air guns, and paint guns), ammunition, explosives, dangerous chemicals, martial arts weapons, or any other objects as weapons (i.e. metal knuckles, blackjack, sap, or similar instruments) on university property is prohibited.
   b. Possession of knives with a culinary purpose, or knives with blades no longer than three (3) inches, are allowed. The following items have no place within East Campus Graduate Village:
      • Knives with blades longer than three (3) inches or knives that are not used for culinary purposes
      • Any knife having a blade that projects or swings into position by force of a spring, by centrifugal force, by gravity, or by any other force
      • Any “combat knife” (i.e. KA-BAR, bayonet, machete, dirk, dagger, and/or hatchets)
      • Ceremonial swords
   c. Misuse of personal defensive devices (pepper spray for example) is prohibited. The owner is responsible and accountable for any misuse of these devices.

29. Smoking: Smoking (including but not limited to cigarettes, cigars, or pipes of any kind) is prohibited on university property.

30. Solicitation, Advertising, and Promotion: Solicitation, advertising, promotion, and commercial transactions are prohibited in all areas. In order to sell or promote any merchandise or service for private profit on state property, a sales permit must be purchased from the university for each sales location. There is to be no solicitation of any kind in University Housing facilities by non-housing groups without the express written permission of University Housing.

31. Petitions: All Residents have the right to petition for waiver of all or part of this Contract in the event of exceptional circumstances. Petitions are available through University Housing office. Resident must be in good standing for a petition to be reviewed. Decisions of the Petition Review Board are final.

32. E-mail: Residents are required to check their University of Oregon e-mail account regularly throughout their tenancy in accordance with university policy and to notify the Office of the Registrar at 541-346-3243 of e-mail account changes.
